

Summer General English Course

- Communicate better in real-life English-speaking situations
- Experience British life and culture
- Access all university facilities

www.leeds.ac.uk/generalenglish

Leeds City Centre

Summer General English Course

Why study on our General English course?

- Improve your confidence and accuracy using English in real-life situations
- Learn using contemporary materials and topics
- Discover more about British life and culture
- Access to University facilities and services such as the libraries, Students' Union and a student card
- Stay in University accommodation
- Take part in the summer social programme of evening and weekend activities
- Our English language programmes are accredited by the British Council for the teaching of English in the UK
- You can enrol for 3, 4, 5, 6 or 10 weeks during the summer.

Study options:	For up-to-date fees and course dates, and to find out more about the course, visit www.leeds.ac.uk/generalenglish
What's included:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All course and learning materials • Free e-mail and internet access • Use of the independent study area and resource centre, The Language Zone • Access to university facilities and services • Optional social programme (costs apply for some trips and events) • End of course certificate
Accommodation:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All applicants are guaranteed places in University self-catering accommodation (prices vary).

The General English course is also offered at other times during the year. Contact us on langc@leeds.ac.uk or visit the website for more details:

www.leeds.ac.uk/generalenglish